

Sean Mallinson

625 INDIAN ROAD, FORT PLAIN, NY 13339 518.993.5022 SEAN@IMMIGRANTSUN.COM

QUALIFICATIONS

Many years of experience with customer and client interactions, excellent interpersonal skills.

Departmental management ability, including general departmental organization, employee relations, budget creation and monitoring, and inter-departmental communication.

Proficiency with a wide range of computer programs on both PC and Mac platforms.

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Freelance Designer/Art Director, New York 2002-2009

Worked with a multitude of clients from the music and non-profit industries on a wide variety of print and web materials such as annual reports, newsletters, ads, cd packaging, posters, program reports, etc.

Immigrant Sun Records, New York 1995-2009
Founder/Owner

Founded and managed all aspects of an independent record label, including all artwork, sales, and inventory, for more than forty successful albums.

Roadrunner Records, New York, New York 1999-2002
Creative Services Manager/Designer

Designed promotional materials and held responsibility for management of project budgets, freelance designers and photographers, and communications both inter-departmentally in house as well as between artists and designers.

Equal Vision Records, Stuyvesant Falls, New York 1997-1999
Designer

Designed various music related print items such as cd packaging, ads, sales sheets, shirts, etc.

Uris Library, Cornell University, Ithaca, New York 1994-1997
Circulation Assistant/Student Supervisor

Assisted patrons in all aspects of the library including monetary matters and supervised student workers.

ACADEMIC BACKGROUND

Fort Plain High School, Fort Plain, New York
High School Diploma with Honors

Cornell University, Ithaca, New York
Bachelor of Science in Biological Studies, 1994

ACTIVITIES

Pro-bono design services for many non-profits, including The Canajoharie Farmer's Market, Families United for Racial and Economic Equality (FUREE) and Friends of Island Academy.